

PETS against violence

Get ready to join the Pets and People against Violence Walk, hosted by the Uinta County Victim Service programs! Bring along your furry friends and show your support in the fight against violence. It's going to be a paws-itively fantastic event

Date: Saturday, October 5th

Time: 11:00 am

Place: Beeman Cashin Building

Bring your dogs, cats, fish, llamas, or even your horse – any animal you can lead, ride, or carry. Show off your furry friend in their costume. Light Lunch will be provided

Bring a new item to donate to the local animal shelter and receive an entry into a prize drawing. Items may include pet food, animal handling equipment, and toys, treats among others.

There will be prizes for the following categories:

- Best in Show
- Scariest
- Funniest
- Cutest
- Most Original

For more information please call SAFV Task Force at 307-789-3628 or The Evanston Police Department at 307-783-6400 ask for Vanessa

